

ORDER OF SERVICE FOR THE INSTALLATION OF
THE RIGHT REVEREND
HENRY KNOX SHERRILL, D.D., LL.D.
AS PRESIDING BISHOP OF
THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH
OF SAINT PETER AND SAINT PAUL
WASHINGTON · DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
TUESDAY · JANUARY 14 · 1947 · AT 3 P.M.

GENERAL CONVENTION

General Convention, in Kansas City on October 14, 1940, adopted the following resolution.

THAT the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, known as the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C., be and hereby is designated as the Seat of the Presiding Bishop for his use on occasions incident to the exercise of his office as Presiding Bishop, and that the Diocese of Washington be requested to take such action as may be appropriate to this end; and that the Bishop of Washington and the Cathedral Chapter be requested to provide him with a Seat in the Cathedral commensurate with the dignity of his office, and to make suitable provision for his use of the Cathedral as Presiding Bishop.

WASHINGTON CATHEDRAL

The Chapter of Washington Cathedral, on February 6, 1941, adopted the following resolution.

THAT the Bishop of Washington and the Cathedral Chapter gladly accede to the foregoing request of the General Convention and undertake to provide the Presiding Bishop with a Seat in the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul in all respects commensurate with the dignity of his office, and to make such provision for his use of the Cathedral as may be found appropriate by the Bishop and the Dean.

The Convention of the Diocese of Washington, on May 8, 1941, adopted the following resolution.

THAT we, the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Washington, cordially welcome the Presiding Bishop to our Diocese in furtherance of the action of the General Convention and the Bishop and Chapter of the Washington Cathedral.

WASHINGTON CATHEDRAL

The services throughout the day are to be as follows.

7:30 A.M. Holy Communion — Chapel of St. Joseph of Arimathea

9:00 A.M. Morning Prayer — Bethlehem Chapel

12:00 M. Intercessions — Chapel of the Holy Spirit

3:00 P.M. THE INSTALLATION OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP

BEFORE THE SERVICE OF INSTALLATION

WHILE we await the coming of the Presiding Bishop, let us quiet our hearts for this solemnity and ask the blessing of Almighty God that we may worthily fulfil this service.

Incline thine ear, O Lord, to our supplications, and vouchsafe to shed forth upon us who are assembled here the purifying grace of thy Holy Spirit, that what is now performed by our unworthy ministry may be fulfilled and perfected by thine effectual power; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, who by thy Holy Spirit dost move the hearts of thy people: We thank thee that thou didst so direct the counsels of those who were appointed to choose a Presiding Bishop for this Church, that we have been given a Chief Pastor of faithfulness and wisdom to lead thy flock in the way of holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORDER OF SERVICE

THE PREPARATION

While the Bishops and other Ministers, and the several dignitaries ecclesiastical and civic, are conducted to their appointed places, the Choir will sing the following Psalms.

PSALM 15

TONE IIIA, 5

LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbor, and hath not slandered his neighbor.

He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

He that sweareth unto his neighbor, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.

He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent.

Whoso doeth these things shall never fall.

PSALM 67

TONE VIII, 3

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us, and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God; yea, let all the peoples praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad; for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise thee, O God; yea, let all the peoples praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase; and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

P S A L M 1 2 2

Leo Sowerby

I WAS glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself.

For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

For there is the seat of judgment, even the seat of the house of David.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Then all shall be seated until the Trumpet announces the arrival of the Presiding Bishop at the West Door.

THE WELCOME

At the sound of the Trumpet all shall stand.

The Presiding Bishop's Procession will be formed in the following order.

The Cross Bearer and Taperers

The Cathedral Verger

The Dean

The Assistant Secretary of the House of Deputies

The Secretary of the House of Bishops

The President of the House of Deputies

The Bishop of Delaware

The former Presiding Bishop

The lately-retired Presiding Bishop

THE PRESIDING BISHOP

And while the Presiding Bishop is conducted to the Choir Screen, the Choir shall sing the following Psalm.

PSALM 150

C. Villiers Stanford

O PRAISE God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him in his noble acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: praise him upon the lute and harp.

Praise him in the timbrels and dances: praise him upon the strings and pipe.

Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals: praise him upon the loud cymbals.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.

GLORY be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE CERTIFICATION

While the Presiding Bishop stands at the top of the Steps before the Choir Screen, in plain view of the People, all shall hear the reading of the Certificates of Election.

The Secretary of the House of Bishops shall hand to the retired Presiding Bishop the Certificate which testifies to the election of the new Presiding Bishop. The retired Presiding Bishop will then read it aloud. This done, the Assistant Secretary of the House of Deputies shall hand to the President of that House the Certificate confirming the election, which the President will then read aloud.

And after this the Verger shall conduct the members of the Presiding Bishop's Procession to their places within the Great Choir.

THE HEARING OF THE WORD

Then shall all be seated while the Choir sings the following words of Scripture from the Old Testament.

ISAIAH'S VISION

David McK. Williams

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the Seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

Then flew one of the Seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

Isaiah 6:1-8

Then shall the Senator from Massachusetts read the Second Lesson as follows.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Romans 12:1-5

Then shall the Congregation and Choir stand, and sing the following Hymn.

A U R E L I A

Samuel Sebastian Wesley

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven he came and sought her
To be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore opprest,

By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union
With God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee. Amen.

Samuel John Stone

THE DECLARATION OF FAITH

Then shall all say together the Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
Born of the Virgin Mary:
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, dead, and buried:
He descended into hell;
The third day he rose again from the dead:
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father
Almighty:
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost:
The holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints:
The Forgiveness of sins:
The Resurrection of the body:
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

AN ACT OF PRAYER

And after this, the former Presiding Bishop and the People shall say the Litany following, the Bishop first pronouncing,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Bishop. Let us pray.

Here all shall kneel.

O Lord, arise, help us.

Answer. And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Bishop. O God, make clean our hearts.

Answer. And renew a right spirit within us.

WE beseech thee to hear us, good Lord; and that it may please thee to grant peace to the whole world;
We beseech thee to hear us.

That it may please thee to sanctify and bless thy holy Church;
We beseech thee to hear us.

That by the operation of the Holy Ghost all Christians may be so joined together in unity of spirit, and in the bond of peace, that they may be an holy temple acceptable unto thee;
We beseech thee to hear us.

That the Government of our Nation in all its branches, Executive, Judicial, and Legislative, may serve this people in the fear of thee and thee alone;
We beseech thee to hear us.

That industrial and racial conflicts among us may be resolved by the honest recognition that all men are made in thy image;

We beseech thee to hear us.

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected to the Office of Presiding Bishop, granting him to think and do always such things as are right, that so he may duly execute the Sacred Office to which thou hast called him;

We beseech thee to hear us.

That we who are here present may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind;

We beseech thee to hear us.

That it may please thee to grant that we, with all thy saints,
may be partakers of thy everlasting kingdom;
We beseech thee to hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Then shall the Bishop, and the People with him, say the Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say,

OLORD, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people who call upon thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

THE DEDICATION

Then all shall stand. And while the Presiding Bishop's Procession moves eastward through the Great Choir, all shall sing this Hymn.

LAUDA ANIMA

John Goss

PRAISE, my soul, the King of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore his praises sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hand he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Widely yet his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him,

Dwellers all in time and space.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise with us the God of grace.

Henry Francis Lyte

alt.; based on Psalm 103

The Presiding Bishop shall proceed to the Prayer Desk at the foot of the Altar Steps, and the other members of his Procession to their appointed places.

The Hymn ended, all shall kneel.

And after a moment of Silence, the Presiding Bishop shall say this Prayer.

O LORD my God, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof; yet thou hast honored thy servant with appointing him to stand in thy House, to speak in thy Name, and to serve thy People. Pour into my heart, O gracious Father, such love toward thee, that, loving thee above all things, I may by my life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and whatsoever I do in word or deed, may do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus; to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and praise, world without end. Amen.

Then the Choir shall sing the following.

GOD BE IN MY HEAD

H. Walford Davies

GOD be in my head,
And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes,
And in my looking;

God be in my mouth,
And in my speaking;
God be in my heart,
And in my thinking;
God be at mine end,
And at my departing.

THE INSTALLATION

Then all shall stand.

All persons in the Sanctuary and Choir shall face the Presiding Bishop.

The Dean shall bring from the Altar the Standard Book of Common Prayer, open at the place where it is written,

WHOSOEVER will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Holding the Book so that the Presiding Bishop may readily place his hand upon it, the Dean shall say,

RIGHT Reverend Father in God, we are honored that you will be Inducted and Installed into this Office in this place, and we desire that you take the Oath believed by us to be lawful and seemly in this behalf.

Then shall the Presiding Bishop say,

I, HENRY KNOX, by Divine Providence Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, duly elected, and now to be Installed, do solemnly swear that I will observe and to the utmost of my power fulfil the duties, statutes, and customs of the Office of Presiding Bishop not contrary to Divine Law.

So help me God
and the contents of this Book.

The retired Presiding Bishop and the President of the House of Deputies, one on either side, shall conduct the Presiding Bishop to his Chair.

Then shall the retired Presiding Bishop place the new Presiding Bishop in the Chair, and make him to sit down in it, saying,

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

I, HENRY ST. GEORGE, do Induct and Install you, Right Reverend Father in God, HENRY KNOX, into the Office of Presiding Bishop, with all its rights, dignities, honors, and privileges; in which may our Lord Jesus Christ preserve your going out and your coming in, from this time forth for evermore. Amen.

Then shall the Dean declare:

SO is this Right Reverend Father and Faithful Pastor, really and lawfully Installed in the Episcopal Presidency of this Church. What then remains but to thank God upon the occasion, and to petition the Divine Majesty: that he, together with the people committed to his charge, may at last attain eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A fanfare of trumpets shall sound.

Then shall the Choir sing the following.

WE praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud; the Heavens, and all the Powers
therein;
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee;
The Father, of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true, and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

THOU art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints, in glory everlasting.

O LORD, save thy people, and bless thine heritage.
Govern them, and lift them up for ever.
Day by day we magnify thee;
And we worship thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

THE PRESENTATION AND SALUTATION

During the singing of the final verse of Te Deum laudamus, the Verger and the Bishop of Washington will escort the Presiding Bishop to the Pulpit. And when they reach the Choir Screen they will pause. Then shall the Bishop of Washington say to the People,

CHISTIAN Brothers, I present unto you
The Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America

HENRY KNOX SHERRILL

now duly Installed: and I ask for him your continuing loyalty, affection, and prayers, that he may be faithful and happy in the execution of his Sacred Office.

And the Whole Congregation shall give welcome to the Presiding Bishop, saying,

THE Lord be unto thee a strong tower!

And the Presiding Bishop shall answer,

HE is my strength and my song;
And is become my salvation.

Then shall the Presiding Bishop enter the pulpit while the People sing the following Hymn.

FESTAL SONG

William H. Walter

RISE up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things,
Give heart, and soul, and mind, and strength
To serve the King of kings.

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where his feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of man,
Rise up, O men of God!

William Pierson Merrill

THE ADDRESS
OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP

The Address ended, the Presiding Bishop will be conducted to the Altar, while the Choir and People sing the following Hymn.

VIGILES ET SANCTI

Melody, Cologne Gesangbuch

YE watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim, and thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out, Dominions, Prinedoms, Powers,
Virtues, Archangels, Angels' choirs,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluia!

Thou Bearer of the eternal Word,
Most gracious, magnify the Lord,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye Patriarchs and Prophets blest,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Ye holy Twelve, ye Martyrs strong,
All Saints triumphant, raise the song
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

O friends, in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluia, Alleluia!

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Amen.

Athelstan Riley

P R A Y E R A N D B L E S S I N G

Then shall the People kneel while the Presiding Bishop says
the following Prayer.

O GOD, of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on thy whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and, by the tranquil operation of thy perpetual providence, carry out the work of man's salvation, and let the whole world feel and see that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and all things are returning to perfection through him from whom they took their origin, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And after that he shall bless the People in these words.

MAY the Lord Jesus Christ fill you with joy.

May his Spirit make you strong and tranquil in the truths of his promises.

And may the blessing of the Lord come upon you abundantly.

And all the People shall say,

A M E N

THE RETIRING PROCESSIONS

The Presiding Bishop's Procession will leave the Cathedral by the West Door.

The other Processions will leave in accordance with the order set forth in the Book of Processions.

The Choir and People shall sing the following Hymns.

URBS BEATA

Sarum Plainsong, Mode II

BLESSED city, heavenly Salem,
 Vision dear of peace and love,
Who of living stones art builded
 In the height of heaven above,
And, with Angel hosts encircled,
 As a bride dost earthward move;

From celestial realms descending,
 Bridal glory round thee shed,
Meet for him whose love espoused thee,
 To thy Lord shalt thou be led;

All thy streets and all thy bulwarks
Of pure gold are fashionèd.

Bright thy gates of pearl are shining;
They are open evermore;
And by virtue of his merits
Thither faithful souls do soar,
Who, for Christ's dear Name, in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed for ever
That his palace should be decked.

Laud and honor to the Father,
Laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

*Latin, c. 7th cent.
Tr. John Mason Neale, alt.*

REGENT SQUARE

Henry Smart

CHRIST is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and corner-stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one;

Holy Sion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city,
Dearly loved of God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody;
God the One in Three adoring
In glad hymns eternally.

To this temple, where we call thee,
Come, O Lord of Hosts, to-day;
With thy wonted loving-kindness
Hear thy servants as they pray,
And thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls alway.

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants
What they ask of thee to gain;
What they gain from thee, for ever
With the Blessed to retain,
And hereafter in thy glory
Evermore with thee to reign. Amen.

N U N D A N K E T

Johann Crueger, adapted by Felix Mendelssohn

NOW thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices;

Who from our mother's arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us!
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven;
Eternal, Triune God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be, evermore. Amen.
